

I am so happy that NJ has such a good regulation such as the Do Not Call Act. It was an invasion of my privacy that companies could call me all the time to try to sell me things without my consent. Please do not take this away from us! Thank you.